

Ms Sun Xueling

Senior Parliamentary Secretary
Ministry of Home Affairs
Ministry of National Development

Member of Parliament
Pasir Ris-Punggol GRC

REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

Ms Sun Xueling was elected a Member of Parliament in September 2015. She currently holds the position of Senior Parliamentary Secretary in the Ministry of Home Affairs and the Ministry of National Development. She is also the Vice-Co Chairman of the Singapore-Tianjin Economic and Trade Council. Ms Sun serves as a Board Member of the Chinese Development Assistance Council.

After the 2015 General Election, Ms Sun was appointed CEO of Business China, a non-profit organization which aims to form a cultural and economic bridge linking the world and China. Business China was launched in 2007 by Mr Lee Kuan Yew, late founding Prime Minister of Singapore and then Premier Wen Jiabao of the People's Republic of China.

Whilst a back-bencher in politics, Ms Sun was Deputy Chairman of the Government Parliamentary Committee (GPC) for the Ministry of Communications and Information, GPC member for the Ministry of Trade and Industry, Ministry of Finance and GPC member for the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth.

Before entering politics, Ms Sun spent more than a decade in the Private Sector in Finance and Investments. She was Director, Investments Group, at Temasek International, focusing on investment opportunities in China and other developing countries in Latin America. She had also spent close to 8 years based in Hong Kong and China working for Deutsche Bank AG as a Director and also as Senior Vice-President in Macquarie Securities.

Ms Sun spent her early career at the Economic Development Board of Singapore and DBS Bank Ltd.

She received her Master of Science in International Political Economy from the London School of Economics and Political Science, and also holds a Bachelor of Social Sciences in Economics from the National University of Singapore.
