

FIFTEENTH PARLIAMENT OF SINGAPORE (FIRST SESSION)

ORDER PAPER
TUESDAY, 7 APRIL 2026

No. 27

12.00 noon

1

QUESTIONS FOR ORAL ANSWER*

- *1. Mr Chua Kheng Wee Louis: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the recent magnitude and speed of adjustments in diesel and petrol prices are in line with refined wholesale prices; and (b) whether the Government is considering temporary or permanent diesel and petrol pump price adjustment mechanisms to mitigate the impact of pump prices on consumers and businesses.
- *2. Ms Hazlina Abdul Halim: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what is the Government's projections on electricity price increases over the next six to 12 months in light of rising global oil and gas prices; and (b) what measures are in place to shield households from sudden spikes in electricity prices.
- *3. Mr Kenneth Tiong Boon Kiat: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry given Australia's 2025 review of the Prohibiting Energy Market Misconduct Act found retailers systematically raise prices faster than they lower them, and recommended symmetrical cost-pass-through obligations requiring retailers to both pass on cost decreases and justify price increases against underlying costs, whether the Government will adopt similar safeguards to protect energy consumers during and after the Strait of Hormuz disruption.
- *4. Ms Diana Pang Li Yen: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what factors explain differences in effective petrol prices across retailers after discounts and promotions amid recent global oil price volatility and regional supply disruptions; and (b) whether the Ministry will review whether existing measures on petrol price transparency and current market conditions are sufficient to support fair competition and allow consumers to make informed choices.
- *5. Mr Foo Cexiang: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Government has observed significant impact to sectors other than oil and gas due to the Middle East situation; and (b) what are the support measures to be implemented in order to mitigate adverse impact and assist businesses facing price and supply challenges.
- *6. Mr Foo Cexiang: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Competition and Consumer Commission of Singapore (CCCS) is actively monitoring the price increases by petrol companies; and (b) how will the CCCS ensure that the Middle East situation is not used as a convenient excuse for anti-competitive behaviour amongst petrol companies.
- *7. Dr Choo Pei Ling: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) how does the Government assess whether global trade disruptions are temporary or indicative of longer-term shifts; (b) what factors inform such assessments; and (c) how do these assessments shape adjustments to Singapore's economic strategy.

- *8. Mr Pritam Singh: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of damage to key liquefied natural gas (LNG) facilities in Qatar (a) what is the estimated impact on household expenditure in Singapore over the next three years; (b) what measures will the Government roll out to help businesses and households manage price shocks; and (c) what thresholds will necessitate fiscal intervention.
- *9. Mr Pritam Singh: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry what is the scope of the Government's contingency plans in the event of a disruption in energy supplies or a prolonged period of high energy prices.
- *10. Mr Gerald Giam Yean Song: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether a severe shortage of fuel supply for electricity generation will trigger a declaration of a High-Risk Operating State under the Singapore Electricity Market Rules; (b) how many months can current national fuel reserves sustain electricity generation if the Strait of Hormuz remains closed; and (c) under what conditions will the Standby LNG Facility reserves be released to power generation companies.
- *11. Mr Sharael Taha: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry given Singapore's reliance on global energy markets (a) what is our quantified exposure to prolonged Strait of Hormuz disruption; (b) what is the projected pass-through of rising oil prices into household costs over the next six to 12 months; and (c) beyond energy, what critical imports such as food, logistics, aviation are most at risk, and what diversification strategies are in place.
- *12. Mr Sharael Taha: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of rising global energy prices and resulting increases in fuel, utilities and logistics costs (a) what is the Government's assessment of how such costs are passed through to businesses and consumers; (b) whether price adjustments are justified and proportionate; and (c) what measures are in place to ensure fair and timely pass-through of cost reductions and prevent unjustified price increases.
- *13. Mr Sharael Taha: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of ongoing tensions in the Strait of Hormuz and the disruption to global crude oil and feedstock flows (a) what is the Government's assessment of the impact on supply into Singapore's refineries; and (b) how will this affect refinery utilisation rates, downstream output including fuels and petrochemicals, and Singapore's overall position as a refining and trading hub.
- *14. Mr Lee Hong Chuang: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of the current economic climate, how can the Government ensure that energy support measures like subsidies or grants are precisely targeted to help to most vulnerable small and medium enterprises (SMEs) without creating market distortions or giving unfair competitive advantages across sectors.
- *15. Ms Mariam Jaafar: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of disruptions arising from the conflict involving Iran (a) whether the Government has reassessed the balance between efficiency and resilience in Singapore's energy and supply chain strategy; and (b) if so, how is the reassessment being operationalised across industries.
- *16. Ms Nadia Ahmad Samdin: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) how the Government is monitoring food price movements in response to the Middle East conflict; and (b) whether more frequent reporting on such movements will be shared publicly to help consumers understand price changes and prepare earlier accordingly.

- *17. Ms Sylvia Lim: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what is the Government's assessment of the impact of the USA, Israel and Iran war on Singapore's energy supply and costs for the next 12 months; and (b) what is the Government's strategy to mitigate the risks and impact of supply disruption and sharp rises in prices.
- *18. Mr Liang Eng Hwa: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether damages to Qatar's Ras Laffan liquefied natural gas (LNG) facilities have material impacts on Singapore's short and medium term LNG supply; (b) whether alternative sources and procurement arrangements are sufficient to offset any shortfall; and (c) whether the declarations of force majeure arising from these disruptions will have significant impacts on Singapore's downstream industries, including electricity generation and industrial users.
- *19. Mr Liang Eng Hwa: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry whether the current energy supply shocks arising from conflicts in the Middle East are expected to accelerate Singapore's efforts to diversify its energy mix, including increased investments in alternative energy sources such as nuclear energy.
- *20. Mr Saktiandi Supaat: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the current Middle East conflict has highlighted risks to Singapore from supply fragmentation and energy nationalism, including export restrictions by producer countries; and (b) how Singapore is strengthening its long-term energy security strategy in response.
- *21. Mr Saktiandi Supaat: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry whether the Government can provide a holistic assessment of the macroeconomic impact of the Middle East conflict thus far on Singapore, including (i) inflation pass-through (ii) growth risks (iii) household cost pressures and (iv) policy responses, under both baseline and adverse energy shock scenarios.
- *22. Ms Hazlina Abdul Halim: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of recent impact of the Middle East conflict on global energy supply (a) what national-level measures are in place or being considered to encourage energy conservation; and (b) what immediate interim support or adjustments can households, workers and businesses expect at this time.
- *23. Mr Fadli Fawzi: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what is the status of Singapore's helium supplies following the closure of the Strait of Hormuz; and (b) whether the Government has contingency plans to help the semiconductor industry access sufficient helium supplies for production.
- *24. Mr Fadli Fawzi: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Government will consider further regulating petrol station operators to ensure that changes in petrol prices, especially increases, are linked to actual market conditions; and (b) if not, why not.
- *25. Ms Joan Pereira: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in view of the escalating conflicts in the Middle East (a) what is the potential impact of the disruptions in supply chains on Singapore; and (b) what are the mitigating measures to maintain stability in our prices and access to supplies.

- *26. Dr Charlene Chen: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry given the possibility of a prolonged Middle East conflict (a) what is the Ministry's latest assessment of the risks to Singapore's long-term economic stability and job security in trade-dependent sectors; and (b) what specific progress has been made in diversifying energy imports and boosting the national stockpile to buffer against protracted supply chain disruptions.
- *27. Ms Denise Phua Lay Peng: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what is the Government's assessment of the impact of the Iran war on the (i) rising price of oil and (ii) cost of business, especially energy businesses; and (b) whether there are measures the Government will be taking to address these concerns.
- *28. Mr Dennis Tan Lip Fong: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) how has the Middle East conflict impacted Singapore's trade volume and GDP growth forecasts for 2026; and (b) what specific measures are being implemented to support local businesses, particularly SMEs, facing the consequences of the disruption of energy supplies and global trade routes.
- *29. Dr Charlene Chen: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in view of the Middle East conflict (a) how is the Ministry monitoring the impact of fuel price volatility on Small and Medium Enterprises (SMEs) with high transport and energy costs; and (b) whether the Ministry will consider targeted temporary support, including energy grants or enhancements to the Energy Efficiency Grant (EEG), to help businesses manage cost spikes and mitigate downstream impact on consumers.
- *30. Mr Christopher de Souza: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what is the Ministry's assessment of Singapore's ability to withstand current oil price shocks arising from the Middle East conflict; and (b) how the Government will support households and businesses facing cost-of-living pressures arising from the conflict in the short, medium and longer term.
- *31. Ms Elysa Chen: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of recent disruptions to global liquefied natural gas supply chains arising from the ongoing conflict in the Middle East (a) whether the Government can assure Singaporeans that backup plans are in place to maintain energy security; and (b) whether households and businesses should expect any increase in energy prices in the coming months.
- *32. Mr Yip Hon Weng: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what proportion of Singapore's crude oil and liquefied natural gas (LNG) imports currently transit through the Strait of Hormuz; (b) how many days of national consumption can our existing oil and LNG stockpiles sustain; and (c) what contingency plans are in place to mitigate prolonged Middle East supply disruptions.
- *33. Assoc Prof Terence Ho: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in view of the risks of a prolonged conflict in the Middle East affecting oil prices, whether the Ministry plans to review (i) its targets for renewable energy and (ii) its approach or timeframe for the deployment of other alternative energy sources including nuclear power.
- *34. Mr Christopher de Souza: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry what lessons can be drawn from the current oil crisis to inform Singapore's long-term energy-security strategy.

- *35. Mr Lee Hong Chuang: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in view of the current conflict in Iran affecting energy prices (a) what is the outlook and strategy for ensuring Singapore's energy security; and (b) what intervention measures will the Ministry be prepared to take if oil prices continue to spiral as a result of a prolonged conflict.
- *36. Ms Nadia Ahmad Samdin: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what is the Government's assessment of how rising fuel prices are affecting SMEs and Singaporeans who depend on their vehicles for daily income, including private-hire drivers and delivery riders; (b) what support is available to these segments; and (c) what safeguards are in place to ensure that fuel price increases do not disproportionately burden consumers through excessive pass-through.
- *37. Mr Ng Shi Xuan: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry whether there are plans to accelerate (i) the review of applications for or (ii) expand the scope of the Energy Efficiency Grant, to help businesses navigate recent volatility in energy costs and ensure energy stability.
- *38. Mr Edward Chia Bing Hui: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Ministry will ensure that increases in global oil and gas prices do not disproportionately impact domestic electricity tariffs; (b) if so, what are its plans; and (c) what mechanisms are in place to moderate cost pass-through to consumers, if any.
- *39. Mr Edward Chia Bing Hui: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry what are the Ministry's plans to ensure that industries disproportionately affected by rising energy costs receive targeted and timely support, if any.
- *40. Ms Lee Hui Ying: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in view of rising energy prices, whether the Government will consider (a) lowering the fuel excise duty; and (b) introducing interim measures to help households and businesses cope with the impact of current rising fuel costs.
- *41. Ms Poh Li San: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in view of the increase in petrol and diesel prices due to the Middle East conflict, whether the Government will consider support measures for local small and medium enterprises (SMEs) that are heavy users of petrol and diesel, especially those in the construction and transportation sectors.
- *42. Mr Ang Wei Neng: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry given elevated oil prices and a potential for significant increases in electricity prices, whether the Ministry is making plans to help (i) small and medium enterprises to cope with the sudden shock and (ii) consumers, especially those who have to rely on fuel and electricity to make a living.
- *43. Ms Joan Pereira: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance in view of the conflicts in the Middle East and disruptions to global trade routes (a) what is the potential impact on Singapore's cost of living, especially for the lower-income groups; and (b) whether support measures will be considered.
- *44. Mr Alex Yam Ziming: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance in light of rising oil prices arising from the conflict in the Middle East and the possible knock-on effects on inflation and business costs (a) what measures are in place to cushion the impact on households and businesses; and (b) whether the Government is prepared to provide further targeted assistance should prices rise significantly.

- *45. Dr Hamid Razak: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance (a) whether the Ministry has assessed the impact of current fuel excise duties on consumers amid recent global fuel price increases; (b) whether temporary adjustments to fuel duties have been considered as a stabilisation measure; and (c) if so, what criteria or thresholds would guide such a policy review.
- *46. Dr Wan Rizal: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance given rising fuel prices and their knock-on effects on food, transport and utilities (a) how does the Government assess the adequacy of existing support measures for middle- and lower-income households; and (b) whether additional targeted assistance will be considered if inflationary pressures persist.
- *47. Ms Mariam Jaafar: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance (a) whether the Government has assessed how external shocks such as the conflict involving Iran might propagate through the economy in uneven ways across sectors and income groups; and (b) how support measures, if any, will be adapted to these differentiated impacts.
- *48. Ms Denise Phua Lay Peng: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance (a) what is the Government's assessment of the impact of the Iran war and the worsening geopolitical environment on (i) businesses (ii) livelihoods and (iii) overall rising costs of living; and (b) whether there are measures the Government will be taking to address these concerns.
- *49. Mr Ang Wei Neng: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance in view of the recent escalation in oil prices and the potential downstream impact on food prices (a) whether the Government is prepared to bring forward U-Save rebate benefits and CDC vouchers meant for the later part of this year and January 2027; and (b) what additional measures can the Government provide to mitigate the impact of any sudden spike in inflation.
- *50. Mr Chua Kheng Wee Louis: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance (a) what has been the increase in electricity prices to households charged by electricity retailers over the past month; and (b) in view of expected increases in electricity tariffs, whether the Government is considering increasing household support measures to mitigate the impact of higher utilities costs in Singapore.
- *51. Mr Gerald Giam Yean Song: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance (a) whether the Ministry will consider a temporary reduction in fuel excise duties to alleviate the impact of the current energy price surge on the net earnings of transport-dependent businesses and individuals; and (b) what specific measures are being implemented to assist such businesses and individuals.
- *52. Mr Ng Chee Meng: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance given the rising fuel prices and expected increases in electricity prices in Singapore (a) whether the current U-Save rebates are likely to remain adequate to offset HDB households' utilities expenses and cushion the impact on middle- and lower-income households; and (b) whether the Government will consider providing some support to taxi, private hire car drivers and delivery platform riders.
- *53. Ms Nadia Ahmad Samdin: To ask the Minister for Sustainability and the Environment how Singapore is strengthening its position as a resilient global hub amid ongoing geopolitical instability and the ongoing conflict in the Middle East, including in areas such as supply chain reliability, food security innovation and energy transition.

- *54. Ms Poh Li San: To ask the Minister for Sustainability and the Environment in view of the Iran war potentially affecting food production in certain parts of the world, will SFA be stepping up its stockpiling and adjusting its food import diversification strategy in case of a prolonged conflict and longer-term impact on global food supplies and food prices.
- *55. Mr Kenneth Tiong Boon Kiat: To ask the Minister for Sustainability and the Environment (a) whether Singapore's strategic food reserves meet the Government's adequacy targets; (b) given that nearly half of globally traded urea and sulphur transit the Strait of Hormuz, whether the Ministry has assessed the impact on Singapore's food import prices; and (c) what measures have been taken since the closure on 2 March 2026 to buffer possible future food price increases.
- *56. Dr Choo Pei Ling: To ask the Minister for Sustainability and the Environment in light of recent global developments affecting food supply chains (a) what mechanisms are in place to stabilise or moderate the impact on food prices for consumers if disruptions occur across multiple import sources simultaneously; (b) whether the Ministry has tested its contingency plans to address such disruptions under simulated conditions; and (c) if so, what are the findings from such tests.
- *57. Ms Lee Hui Ying: To ask the Acting Minister for Transport in light of recent fare adjustments by Grab and ComfortDelGro (a) whether the Ministry was consulted prior to the implementation; and (b) what regulatory oversights and concrete safeguards are in place to prevent private-hire and taxi operators from passing down the burden of rising fuel costs to commuters.
- *58. Dr Wan Rizal: To ask the Acting Minister for Transport in light of recent global energy price volatility (a) what is the estimated impact of higher petrol and diesel prices on the monthly operating costs of Private Hire Vehicle (PHV) drivers, taxi drivers and delivery riders; and (b) whether there are contingency measures to provide targeted relief should prices remain elevated.
- *59. Mr Pritam Singh: To ask the Acting Minister for Transport in view of high energy prices arising from the latest conflict in the Middle East, whether the Ministry will announce (i) road tax rebates for motorcycles, private-hire vehicles, taxis and commercial vehicles and (ii) petrol duty rebates for private-hire and taxi drivers.
- *60. Mr Dennis Tan Lip Fong: To ask the Acting Minister for Transport (a) what is the Ministry's assessment of the prolonged Middle East conflict's impact on (i) Singapore's sea and air freight reliability and (ii) our transport hubs; and (b) what specific measures are being taken to help affected Singapore-flagged vessels, Singapore carriers and shipping companies including mitigating surging transportation and other associated costs.
- *61. Mr Foo Cexiang: To ask the Minister for Foreign Affairs whether Singapore has been engaging with other countries, especially ASEAN nations, to foster closer cohesion and forge stability in the face of the ongoing global conflicts.
- *62. Ms Mariam Jaafar: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Government assesses that global inflation dynamics have shifted from a cyclical to a more structurally volatile regime, in light of repeated geopolitical shocks; and (b) if so, what is the Government's plan to ensure that its policy adapts beyond short term stabilisation.

- *63. Mr David Hoe: To ask the Minister for National Development (a) aside from demand, potential disamenities, fire safety, exit capacity and structural loading, what other constraints may limit the conversion of underutilised HDB multi-storey car park (MSCP) spaces for community uses; and (b) whether such constraints apply to the MSCP at Clementi Peaks.
- *64. Mr Alex Yam Ziming: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of the US launching a Section 301 investigation into excess industrial capacity that includes Singapore on the grounds of global semiconductor capacity despite Singapore running a trade deficit with the US (a) what is the Government's assessment of the basis for Singapore's inclusion; (b) whether Singapore sectors may face tariffs; and (c) what engagements are underway to safeguard Singapore's trade interests.
- *65. Mr Saktiandi Supaat: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what assessment has the Government made of the potential economic impact on Singapore arising from the US Section 301 investigation into alleged excess industrial capacity among several economies including Singapore; and (b) whether this could affect key export sectors such as electronics, semiconductors and precision engineering.
- *66. Mr Yip Hon Weng: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry following the US Section 301 investigation into Singapore's semiconductor capacity (a) how is the Ministry addressing US concerns and highlighting Singapore's bilateral trade deficit with the US; and (b) what strategies are being deployed to diversify Singapore's trade relations and mitigate the economic impact of potential US punitive tariffs.
- *67. Mr Mark Lee: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of the expanding Section 301 investigations by the US into forced labour risks across global supply chains (a) how does the Government assess potential implications for Singapore-based companies and our foreign workforce framework; (b) whether domestic sectors reliant on migrant workers may face increased scrutiny; and (c) what guidance will be provided to local companies for compliance and supply-chain due diligence.
- *68. Mr Mark Lee: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of the US initiating Section 301 investigations into structural excess industrial capacity in manufacturing sectors across several economies including Singapore (a) what is the Government's assessment of potential implications for Singapore's trade-oriented industries; (b) which sectors may face heightened scrutiny or trade risks; and (c) what guidance will be provided to help businesses prepare for possible actions arising from such investigations.
- *69. Mr Dennis Tan Lip Fong: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry what progress has been made in consultations with the United States Trade Representative (USTR) to correct the significant discrepancy between the reported US$27 billion bilateral trade surplus in the USTR Federal Register Notice and the US$27 billion deficit recorded by the US Bureau of Economic Analysis.
- *70. Mr Christopher de Souza: To ask the Coordinating Minister for Public Services and Minister for Defence whether the Ministry will consider (i) formally recognising the contributions of SAF personnel involved in recent repatriation flights from the Middle East and (ii) developing exhibitions or public education initiatives to highlight the choices and personal courage required to organise such repatriation efforts from active warzones.

- *71. Mr Ang Wei Neng: To ask the Minister for Digital Development and Information (a) what lessons have the Ministry learnt from network disruptions experienced by a major telecommunications company in Singapore for three consecutive days; (b) whether the Ministry is aware of any disruptions of emergency or essential services contributed by the network disruptions; and (c) what steps are being considered by IMDA to prevent or minimise similar occurrences in the future.
- *72. Mr Melvin Yong Yik Chye: To ask the Minister for Digital Development and Information arising from the recent service disruptions affecting Singtel customers over three consecutive days, whether IMDA will review and strengthen its requirements on telecommunications network resilience, including ensuring that failover systems are robust and effective under real-world conditions.
- *73. Dr Neo Kok Beng: To ask the Minister for Digital Development and Information in view of the recent Singtel mobile service outage on 16 March 2026 which caused much business and personal disruption, whether the Ministry will consider introducing regulations to require telecommunications networks to facilitate temporary mobile service switches to subscribers affected by disruptions.
- *74. Ms Poh Li San: To ask the Minister for Digital Development and Information (a) what are the causes of the 16 March 2026 disruption on Singtel's mobile network; (b) how many users were affected; and (c) whether IMDA has any plan to review the minimum level of redundancy required for telecommunications networks, given increasing reliance for mobile services.
- *75. Ms Kuah Boon Theng: To ask the Coordinating Minister for Social Policies and Minister for Health (a) how many Advance Medical Directives (AMDs) have been registered to date; and (b) to make it easier to sign an AMD, whether the Ministry will consider removing the requirement that AMDs must always be signed before a doctor, even when there are no concerns that the individual may lack mental capacity.
- *76. Ms Kuah Boon Theng: To ask the Coordinating Minister for Social Policies and Minister for Health whether the Ministry will reassess the need to continue prohibiting doctors from asking their patients if they have an AMD, especially as the Registrar of AMDs is contactable during office or clinic hours, and doctors may otherwise experience difficulties ascertaining their patient's AMD status if the certification of terminal illness occurs after the Registrar's regular office hours.
- *77. Dr Choo Pei Ling: To ask the Coordinating Minister for Social Policies and Minister for Health in view of the target of 40,000 married couples between 2024 and 2027 against 674 screened at end 2025 under the regarding the PaREnthood genetic DIsease Carrier Test (PREDICT) Programme (a) what are the reasons for the low screening rate; and (b) whether the Ministry will consider including couples planning to get married, like those already on the HDB Fiancé/Fiancée Scheme.
- *78. Ms Gho Sze Kee: To ask the Minister for Education whether schools are resourced and equipped to (i) deal with any possible negative impact of posting group (PG) banding and (ii) promote inclusivity, interaction and friendships across different PGs in the same class.
- *79. Ms Hazlina Abdul Halim: To ask the Acting Minister-in-charge of Muslim Affairs (a) what are some community support mechanisms available to help individuals process the impact of international conflicts; and (b) how are global conflicts abroad being unpacked domestically to maintain social harmony and cohesion in Singapore.

- *80. Mr Ng Shi Xuan: To ask the Minister for Social and Family Development whether an update can be provided on the take-up rate of the new shared parental leave since 1 April 2025.
- *81. Ms Hany Soh: To ask the Coordinating Minister for Social Policies and Minister for Health whether the Ministry has observed an increase in medical consultations due to haze induced symptoms from year to date.
- *82. Mr Low Wu Yang Andre: To ask the Minister for Digital Development and Information (a) whether the whole-of-Government data architecture permits proprietary AI or data analytics platforms from foreign-headquartered vendors to process citizen data; and (b) if so, what legal and technical safeguards ensure that such data cannot be compelled for disclosure by a foreign government under that government's domestic laws.
- *83. Mr Patrick Tay Teck Guan: To ask the Minister for Manpower what is the current 10th, 20th, 25th, 50th, 75th and 80th percentile of the gross monthly income from work (excluding employer CPF) of full-time employed Professionals, Managers and Executives (PMEs), excluding Associate Professionals & Technicians (APTs).
- *84. Ms Valerie Lee: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Government is coordinating planning efforts across industrial activities and development in the Loyang and Changi North Industrial estates and the Changi aviation sector in order to minimise congestion and disamenities to nearby residents and impact on the environment; and (b) if so, what is the scope and timeline of such coordination efforts.
- *85. Mr Abdul Muhaimin Abdul Malik: To ask the Minister for National Development (a) whether the Ministry is concerned that million-dollar HDB resale flat transactions have surged by 54.7% to 1,594 units in 2025, even as overall price growth moderated to 2.9%; and (b) what measures is the Government considering to moderate such transactions and to safeguard public confidence in public housing affordability.
- *86. Dr Neo Kok Beng: To ask the Minister for Social and Family Development (a) what the present estimated shortfall of foster parents is; and (b) what additional programmes are planned to address this shortfall, if any.
- *87. Dr Neo Kok Beng: To ask the Minister for Social and Family Development (a) whether the Ministry has any plan to issue guidelines for co-parenting arrangements between foster and biological parents; and (b) if so, when will these guidelines be issued.
- *88. Ms Lee Hui Ying: To ask the Minister for National Development (a) whether any organised criminal activity in Singapore was detected in recent illegal wildlife trade enforcement operations such as Interpol's Operation Thunder; and (b) if so, what are the implications of these activities on Singapore's ports, companies, and financial systems.
- *89. Assoc Prof Kenneth Goh: To ask the Minister for Education regarding the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) findings linking earlier academic sorting to stronger socio-economic status (SES) performance associations (a) whether the Ministry has assessed whether PSLE-based school placement at age 12 amplifies the SES-performance gap; (b) if so, what that assessment found; and (c) if no such assessment exists, whether the Ministry intends to conduct one.

- *90. Mr David Hoe: To ask the Minister for Social and Family Development since the nationwide rollout of KidSTART in 2025 (a) what follow-up assessment has the Ministry conducted on the programme's effectiveness including key child and family outcomes; and (b) whether these findings have prompted any review of the programme's reach.
- *91. Mr Lee Hong Chuang: To ask the Minister for Social and Family Development (a) what are the existing safeguards to protect the identities of children involved in child protection cases from being publicised or disclosed by their own parents; (b) what specific challenges does the Ministry face in implementing and enforcing these safeguards; and (c) what more can be done to better protect the identities of children in such cases.
- *92. Assoc Prof Jamus Jerome Lim: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) why the data for current bands for household market income starts at below $1,000 and stops at $20,000; (b) whether the Department of Statistics Singapore will consider expanding the "$20,000 & Over" category into additional bands.
- *93. Mr Gabriel Lam: To ask the Acting Minister for Transport given that 52% of road accidents in 2025 are attributed to failure to keep a proper lookout (a) how many of these involved vehicles turning into minor roads and striking pedestrians at zebra crossings; (b) whether junction design contributes to such risks; and (c) what infrastructure adjustments are being considered to reduce turning-related pedestrian collisions.
- *94. Mr Low Wu Yang Andre: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance what is the quantum of expenditure across all Ministries, Statutory Boards, and Organs of State on procurement contracts, software licences or consultancy services provided by Palantir Technologies or its subsidiaries over the past five years.
- *95. Mr Ng Shi Xuan: To ask the Minister for Social and Family Development whether the relevant Government agencies will consider (i) implementing a mandatory annual grading framework for student care centres and (ii) mandating that the grades be displayed prominently at such centres.
- *96. Ms Yeo Wan Ling: To ask the Minister for Manpower in view of the recent announcement by a food delivery platform company to exit Singapore market which affects workers' livelihoods, (a) what protections are in place to support the affected workers; (b) whether platform companies are required to provide notice and transition assistance; and (c) whether additional measures will be introduced to strengthen redeployment and income support during such disruptions.
- *97. Mr Jackson Lam: To ask the Minister for Manpower (a) how many delivery riders may be affected by the recent exit of a food delivery platform company in Singapore; (b) what support measures are available for riders facing income disruption; and (c) whether platform worker protections adequately address such sudden market exits by platform companies.
- *98. Assoc Prof Kenneth Goh: To ask the Minister for Education (a) how the Ministry assesses Singapore's economic, social and cultural status (ESCS) slope ranking of second out of 79 in the Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) systems, given that comparable high-performing systems such as Japan and Korea rank significantly lower; (b) what specific measures target a reduction in this slope; and (c) what progress is expected.

- *99. QUESTIONS FOR WRITTEN ANSWER

1. Mr Saktiandi Supaat: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether Singapore maintains sufficient strategic stockpiles of key energy and essential inputs to buffer against supply disruptions arising from the Middle East conflict; and (b) how long such buffers can sustain domestic needs under adverse scenarios.
2. Mr Saktiandi Supaat: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) how Singapore's petrochemical and refining sectors are affected by higher feedstock costs and potential supply disruptions arising from the Middle East conflict; and (b) whether there are risks to the output, margins and competitiveness given Singapore's role as a regional energy and chemicals hub.
3. Ms He Ting Ru: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) how the messages asking households to conserve energy are tailored for lower income households living in smaller, already energy efficient homes; and (b) what is the assessment on whether asking such households to do more on conservation is realistic given their current baseline consumption.
4. Ms Valerie Lee: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the Government is considering any mandatory energy-saving measures to cope with rising energy prices and possible energy shortage scenarios; and (b) if so, what specific initiatives are being evaluated or implemented.

5. Dr Charlene Chen: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) whether the scope of the Committee Against Profiteering (CAP) can be expanded to investigate feedback on disproportionate increases in utility and petrol prices attributed to the Middle East conflict; and (b) what measures are in place to ensure that businesses do not increase prices excessively with global volatility as a pretext.
 6. Mr Chua Kheng Wee Louis: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry under the joint statement with Australia on energy security on 23 March 2026 (a) whether quantitative targets have been set for the flow of petroleum oils such as diesel and liquefied natural gas (LNG) between Singapore and Australia; and (b) whether LNG supply commitments have been secured from Australia and if so, at what prices.
 7. Ms He Ting Ru: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in view of the economic uncertainty due to the war in Iran (a) what are the specific triggers that the Government uses to determine whether to introduce additional support for lower and middle-income families; and (b) how does the Government assess whether the level of support given to families are adequate.
 8. Ms He Ting Ru: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) what progress has been made in diversifying Singapore's sources of energy, food, and other critical imports in light of the Iran war; and (b) whether any further stockpiling or diversification measures are being considered.
 9. Assoc Prof Jamus Jerome Lim: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry in light of developments in the Strait of Hormuz (a) whether the Ministry expects rising gas prices to be passed through to electricity prices in Singapore; (b) what range of price increases is anticipated; (c) whether financial support will be provided to households not receiving U-Save rebates; and (d) what gas price levels will trigger such support.
 10. Mr Pritam Singh: To ask the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Trade and Industry (a) how does the Singapore-Australia Comprehensive Strategic Partnership 2.0 enhance Singapore's energy security against high energy prices; and (b) under the Partnership, what specific measures have been implemented to compensate for the disruption of LNG supplies from Qatar to Singapore.
 11. Mr David Hoe: To ask the Prime Minister and Minister for Finance given fuel prices have risen significantly because of the Middle East conflict, whether the Government will consider temporary targeted support such as time-limited fuel rebates or equivalent cash offsets for lower-income ride-hail drivers and delivery riders without access to subsidised fuel or company-negotiated fuel discounts with petrol pump operators.
 12. Mr Yip Hon Weng: To ask the Acting Minister for Transport (a) what is Singapore's stake in providing marine war-risk insurance for shipping in the Arabian Gulf; (b) what strategies ensure we remain the region's preferred marine insurance hub against cheaper competitors; and (c) whether our tax concessions for ship-leasing, marine insurance, and shipping management remain globally competitive.
 13. Mr David Hoe: To ask the Acting Minister for Culture, Community and Youth (a) how does the Government determine the locations of heartland sites for major national celebrations such as Chingay@Heartlands and National Day Parade Heartland Celebrations; and (b) whether the Government will consider a clearer multi-year rotational framework so that access to such celebrations is more evenly spread across all towns.
