WRITTEN REPRESENTATIONS

The Select Committee had accepted and decided to publish a total of 167 written representations on its website. These include late representations up to 22 March 2018 and the representations of witnesses who gave oral evidence, which have already been published.

2 The Select Committee will resume its work after Parliament reconvenes. The Select Committee will consider the views put forth in all the written representations, as well as the oral evidence it has heard over 3 weeks in March, which represent a cross-section of the different stakeholders and views in the written representations.
