PART 4 25

SAVING AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Saving and transitional provisions

18.—(1) Sections 8 and 9 (which amend sections 49 and 52, respectively, of the Estate Agents Act 2010) do not apply to any contravention before the date of commencement of those provisions of — 30

- (a) any provision of Part 4A of the Estate Agents Act 2010; or

(b) any regulation made under section 72, or any code of practice, ethics and conduct prescribed or issued and published under section 42(1), of the Estate Agents Act 2010, in respect of requirements relating to the detection and prevention of money laundering or terrorism financing, or for the reporting of transactions suspected of involving money laundering or terrorism financing, and sections 49 and 52 of the Estate Agents Act 2010 as in force immediately before that date continue to apply to any such contravention as if sections 8 and 9 had not been enacted.

(2) Section 13 (which amends section 27A of the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act 1965) does not apply to any compoundable offence reasonably suspected of having been committed before the date of commencement of that section, and section 27A of the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act 1965 as in force immediately before that date continues to apply to any such offence as if section 13 had not been enacted.

(3) For a period of 2 years after the date of commencement of any provision of this Act, the Minister may, by regulations, prescribe any additional provisions of a saving or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of that provision that the Minister may consider necessary or expedient.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend the Estate Agents Act 2010, the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act 1965 and the Sale of Commercial Properties Act 1979 mainly to give effect to certain recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF). The Bill is divided into 4 Parts.

Part 1 consists of amendments to the Estate Agents Act 2010 to give effect to certain recommendations of the FATF regarding anti-money laundering, proliferation financing and terrorism financing, as well as to amend the disciplinary regime in that Act to allow financial penalties to be imposed on a “per contravention” basis for contraventions of any provision of Part 4A of that Act or the regulations, or any provision of a code of practice, ethics and conduct, relating to money laundering, proliferation financing and terrorism financing.

Part 2 consists of amendments to the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act 1965 to likewise give effect to certain recommendations of the FATF regarding the same matters described in Part 1, as well as to revise the composition regime in that Act.

Part 3 consists of amendments to the Sale of Commercial Properties Act 1979 broadly for the same purposes described in Part 2.

Part 4 relates to saving and transitional provisions.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

PART 1

AMENDMENT OF ESTATE AGENTS ACT 2010

Part 1 consists of clauses 2 to 11.

Clause 2 amends section 3 (Interpretation) to insert new definitions of “counterparty” and “proliferation financing” in subsection (1) and to insert a new criterion for determining whether an individual, or a person other than an individual, is a “fit and proper person” in subsection (2) for the purposes of determining whether a person may hold an estate agent’s licence or be registered as a salesperson.

Clause 3 amends Part 4A (Prevention of Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism) to replace the reference in the Part heading to money laundering and the financing of terrorism with a reference to money laundering, proliferation financing and terrorism financing.

Clauses 4 and 5 amend sections 44A (Application of this Part) and 44B (Customer due diligence measures), respectively, to replace the references in those sections to money laundering and terrorism financing with references to money laundering, proliferation financing and terrorism financing.

Clause 6 inserts a new section 44BA (Counterparty due diligence measures) which requires a licensed estate agent or registered salesperson to perform prescribed due diligence measures on a counterparty in relation to an acquisition or disposition of property by the licensed estate agent or registered salesperson’s client in certain circumstances, where the counterparty is not represented by any licensed estate agent or registered salesperson.

Clause 7 makes amendments to section 44C (Keeping of records) that are consequential to the new section 44BA.

Clause 8 amends section 49 (Complaints) to allow the Council for Estate Agencies (the Council) to impose financial penalties on a “per contravention” basis in respect of a complaint or information referred to the Council regarding the conduct of a licensed estate agent or registered salesperson, for a contravention of any provision of Part 4A or the regulations, or any provision of a code of practice, ethics and conduct, relating to money laundering, proliferation financing or terrorism financing, and also makes an amendment to subsection (8) which is consequential to the other amendments to that section.

Clause 9 amends section 52 (Disciplinary action, etc.) to allow a Disciplinary Committee to impose financial penalties on a “per contravention” basis in a disciplinary action that is taken against a licensed estate agent or registered salesperson, for a contravention of any provision of Part 4A or the regulations, or any provision of a code of practice, ethics and conduct, relating to money laundering, proliferation financing or terrorism financing.

Clause 10 amends the regulation-making powers of the Council in section 72 (Regulations) to insert an additional power for the Council to make regulations for requirements in relation to the detection and prevention of proliferation financing, and for the reporting of transactions suspected of involving proliferation financing.

Clause 11 makes miscellaneous amendments which are consequential to the amendments to section 49 made by clause 8.

PART 2

AMENDMENT OF HOUSING DEVELOPERS (CONTROL AND LICENSING) ACT 1965

Part 2 consists of clauses 12, 13 and 14.

Clause 12 amends section 2 (Interpretation) to replace the definition of “money laundering or terrorism financing offence” with a new definition of “money laundering, proliferation financing or terrorism financing offence”, and to insert a new definition of “proliferation financing”.

Clause 13 amends section 27A (Composition of offences) to revise the maximum composition sum for offences which are prescribed as compoundable offences under the Act.

Clause 14 makes miscellaneous amendments to replace various references in the Act to money laundering and terrorism financing with references to money laundering, proliferation financing and terrorism financing, to amend a reference to “targeted financial sanctions against terrorism” to a reference to “targeted financial sanctions against terrorism, terrorism financing and proliferation financing”, as well as miscellaneous amendments to conform to the revised house style, citations and numbering that were introduced in the 2020 Revised Edition of Acts.

PART 3

AMENDMENT OF
SALE OF COMMERCIAL PROPERTIES ACT 1979

Part 3 consists of clauses 15, 16 and 17.

Clause 15 amends section 2 (Interpretation) to replace the definition of “money laundering or terrorism financing offence” with a new definition of “money laundering, proliferation financing or terrorism financing offence”, and to insert a new definition of “proliferation financing”.

Clause 16 inserts a new section 9A (Composition of offences) which provides for the composition of offences which are prescribed as compoundable offences under the Act.

Clause 17 makes miscellaneous amendments to replace various references in the Act to money laundering and terrorism financing with references to money laundering, proliferation financing and terrorism financing, to amend a reference to “targeted financial sanctions against terrorism” to a reference to “targeted financial sanctions against terrorism, terrorism financing and proliferation financing”, as well as to amend various provisions to conform to the revised house style, citations and numbering that were introduced in the 2020 Revised Edition of Acts.

PART 4

SAVING AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Part 4 consists of clause 18.

Clause 18 provides for saving and transitional matters in relation to the amendments to sections 49 and 52 of the Estate Agents Act 2010 that are made by clauses 8 and 9, respectively, and the amendment to section 27A of the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act 1965 that is made by clause 13. The increased financial penalties in sections 49 and 52 of the Estate Agents Act 2010 as amended do not apply to contraventions committed before those amendments come into operation. Likewise the increased composition sum in section 27A of the Housing Developers (Control and Licensing) Act 1965 does not apply to any compoundable offence reasonably suspected of having been committed before the amendment comes into operation. The clause also empowers the Minister to make regulations to prescribe additional provisions of a saving or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of any provision of the Bill as the Minister may consider necessary or expedient. The Minister has power to do so only within 2 years after the date of commencement of the provision.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
