

Low Wu Yang Andre 刘宇扬

Andre is a member of The Workers' Party of Singapore. He has been with the Party since 2020, and was Secretarial Assistant to Member of Parliament Chua Kheng Wee Louis from 2020 to 2023 and tasked with the running of Meet-the-people Sessions. Since 2023, Andre has been a core member of the Workers Party's media team, where he led the modernisation of the party's digital presence and contributes strategic insights on communication and messaging.

Andre was elected as a Non-constituency Member of Parliament in the 2025 General Elections. He has a broad professional background that spans law, technology, consulting, and finance. He began his career as a disputes lawyer with Drew & Napier before venturing into the startup space. He has also worked at Amazon and the Boston Consulting Group, and is now a product manager in a global fintech firm.

Andre holds a Bachelor of Laws (First Class Honours) from University College London, where he graduated 3rd in his cohort, and a Master of Business Administration from INSEAD, where he was a Tomorrow's Leaders Scholar. He is admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Singapore Bar, though he is not in active practice.

Andre is married.