

Cassandra Lee Shi Wee 吕思愷

Member of Parliament, West Coast-Jurong West GRC

People's Action Party

- Cassandra began serving as a community volunteer in 2009. She has served as a grassroots leader and in the Women's Wing of the People's Action Party.
- As a volunteer, Cassandra led various initiatives in support of the causes she believes in. Cassandra led efforts across the Jurong divisions to support young parents in balancing their careers with caregiving needs such as raising awareness on the new Family Justice Rules and Tripartite Guidelines on Flexible Work Arrangement Requests, and promoting flexible, part-time and micro-job employment options to those who are contemplating or have taken career breaks. A strong advocate for the elderly, Cassandra led efforts to improve barrier free accessibility to enable seniors to age-in-place and continue participating in the local community in their old age.
- Cassandra is currently Assistant Director, Singapore Technology Legal Counsel, at EY Singapore, where she leads the technology and artificial intelligence practice for the Singapore general counsel's office and the ASEAN excellence centre. Prior to joining EY, Cassandra was in the Legal Service where she served as State Counsel and Deputy Public Prosecutor in the Civil Division of the Attorney General's Chambers. Cassandra started her career in Enterprise Singapore, where she was part of Singapore's negotiation team for multilateral and bilateral free trade agreements and represented Singapore at ASEAN and APEC.
- Cassandra is an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore
- Cassandra holds double degrees (with honours) in law and economics from the National University of Singapore, where she studied under the SPRING Singapore Executive Development Scholarship.
- Cassandra is married and has one child.
