

Eileen Chong Pei Shan 蒋佩珊

Background

Eileen is a member of The Workers' Party of Singapore. She was elected as a Non-Constituency Member of Parliament (NCMP) in the 2025 General Election.

A former Singapore diplomat, Eileen currently works in philanthropy. She leads the early childhood development, education and youth mental wellbeing portfolios at Asia Philanthropy Circle (APC). Her 6.5-year foreign service career spanned a three-year posting to the Singapore Embassy in Beijing from 2020 to 2023, as well as headquarter stints covering Singapore's bilateral relationships with China, Thailand, the Philippines and Laos.

Eileen was awarded the Singapore Government Scholarship (Foreign Service) in 2011 and went on to pursue higher studies in China and South Korea. She holds an M.A in Global Affairs from Yonsei University and a B.A in International Politics from Peking University.

Vision for Singapore

Eileen hopes to see more kindness and empathy in Singapore's political discourse. She is committed to building a more inclusive Singapore where diverse voices unite rather than divide, and where every Singaporean feels heard and supported.
