

Ms Grace Fu Hai Yien
Minister for Sustainability and the Environment
Minister-in-charge of Trade Relations
Republic of Singapore

Ms Grace Fu graduated with a Bachelor of Accountancy (Honours), and subsequently obtained a Masters of Business Administration from the National University of Singapore. She began her career in 1985 with the Overseas Union Bank, and later with the Haw Par Group, in the areas of corporate planning, financial controls and business development.

Ms Fu joined the PSA Corporation in 1995, and took on different responsibilities in finance and marketing. She held the position of Chief Executive Officer, PSA Southeast Asia and Japan, where she was responsible for the business performance of PSA's flagship terminals in Singapore, Thailand, Brunei and Japan.

Ms Fu was elected as a Member of Parliament in June 2006 for the Group Representation Constituency of Jurong, Yuhua Division. She subsequently contested and won her seat in the Yuhua Single Member Constituency in the 2011, 2015 and 2020 General Elections. At the 2025 General Election, Ms Fu led the PAP team in the newly formed Jurong East–Bukit Batok GRC, securing a clear mandate and returning to Parliament.

In 2006, Ms Fu was appointed to the Ministry of National Development as Minister of State. Two years later, she was promoted to Senior Minister of State, and given a concurrent appointment in the Ministry of Education. In 2011, she was appointed as Senior Minister of State in the Ministry of Information, Communications and the Arts, and the Ministry of the Environment and Water Resources. In August 2012, she was appointed as Minister, Prime Minister's Office, Second Minister for Foreign Affairs, and Second Minister for Environment and Water Resources. In 2014, she was put in charge of the Municipal Services Office.

In 2015, Ms Fu was appointed Minister for Culture, Community and Youth, becoming the first woman in Singapore to helm a Ministry. She also chaired the National Integration Council, National Youth Council, and sat on the board of the People's Association. She also served on committees, including the Singapore-Zhejiang Economic and Trade Council, the Sino-Singapore Tianjin Eco-city Joint Steering Council, the Ministerial Committee on Ageing and the Economic Strategies Committee.

Ms Fu has served as Minister for Sustainability and the Environment since July 2020, and as Minister-in-charge of Trade Relations since January 2024.

In January 2024, she was also elected as President of the Singapore National Olympic Council and continues to hold this position.

Ms Fu enjoys an active lifestyle, which includes running, yoga and hiking. She is married with three sons.
