

HAZLINA ABDUL HALIM 何礼娜

- Passionate about building an ecosystem of support so Singaporeans can achieve aspirations of a brighter future.
- Former Presenter/Editor at CNA before moving into the social impact sector and served as CEO of Make-A-Wish Singapore, a global children's charity, and President of the Singapore Muslim Women Association (PPIS), a social service agency uplifting women, families, and children.
- Steered PPIS through the COVID-19 crisis, ensuring seamless service to over 10,000 beneficiaries across eighteen centres, while establishing Rise Above — Singapore's first secular halfway house for women.
- Spoke at the United Nations for the 88th CEDAW session in Geneva (2024) and the Commission on the Status of Women in New York (2023) to advocate for women's development in Singapore.
- Conferred the Pingat Bakti Masyarakat in 2024 for contributions to social and family development.
- Chairperson of Oaks Plus Limited, a charity providing accessible early childhood education and serves on the Boards of National Council Against Drug Abuse, Singapore Kindness Movement, Singapore Business Federation Foundation, MigrantWell, Yayasan MENDAKI, and NCSS Community Chest.
- Volunteered as District Councillor at the Southeast CDC, Co-Chair of PA's Communications and Engagement Panel, and former member of Macpherson CCC and CCMC.
- Senior Vice President at a global CEO Advisory Consultancy Firm.