

Indranee THURAI RAJAH
Minister in the Prime Minister's Office
Second Minister for Finance and National Development
Leader of the House, 15th Parliament
Member of Parliament for Pasir Ris-Changi GRC

Ms Indranee Rajah is the Minister in the Prime Minister's Office. She is also Second Minister for Finance and Second Minister for National Development.

Ms Rajah is the Leader of the House for the 15th Parliament and Member of Parliament for Pasir Ris-Changi GRC.

In the Prime Minister's Office, Ms Rajah assists Deputy Prime Minister Gan Kim Yong in the National Population and Talent Division and oversees the Marriage & Parenthood portfolio.

Under her Finance portfolio, Ms Rajah is involved in the development of the Government's fiscal policies, including chairing the Green Bond Steering Committee, which looks at Singapore's Green Bond Framework. She also oversees the:

- Development of Professional Services in the legal, accounting, built environment, design, consulting and marketing sectors to harness cross-cutting growth opportunities domestically and externally; and
- Infrastructure Asia, the Singapore government platform that connects infrastructure demand and supply in the region.

As Second Minister for National Development, she is involved in the formulation of Singapore's housing and development policies. She also assists in overseeing:

- The Centre for Liveable Cities and the World Cities Summit;
- The professional services in the built environment sector;
- Review of Singapore's long-term land-use planning for urban development;
- Strategies for sustainable housing; and
- Policies guiding Singapore's transformation into a City in Nature.

Ms Rajah currently co-chairs the Taskforce for Architectural & Engineering Consultants, which was established to identify strategies to strengthen and promote growth for the professional services in the Built Environment sector.

Ms Indranee is also a Senior Counsel and was a practising lawyer before taking up political office.

(May 2025)