

Party activist at Teck Ghee branch since 2004 and later he served as a Branch Chairman for nine years in Hougang from 2014 to 2023 and YP (Exco) from 2008 to 2010.

Awarded the Public Service Medal (PBM) in 2005, and the Public Service Star (BBM) in 2013, in recognition of his efforts within the community. He also awarded National Youths Award, the highest accolades, in 2005 and 2009 in his contribution towards the youths.

Advocate wellbeing for community at large ranging from youths to seniors, creating greater bond for families and always supporting the vulnerable.

As a former National Gymnast, he is a strong believer that sports can bring together and strengthen bonds within families and communities. In his years of volunteering, he had also chaired and organized many national projects such as the 1st Youth Olympic Games and 28th SEA Games as Competition Manager of Gymnastics. He led the National Gymnastics Team to several Major Gymnastics Competitions and created several history for gymnastics achievements.

As the Adviser of the Creative Media and Publishing Union (CMPU), a trade union representing the creative media, publishing, journalism, e-commerce and gaming sectors, to advise the union executive committee on financial investment and related matters for sustainability of operations. And often offer network to union in terms of potential companies for partnership, and potential activists for union's leadership pipeline and most importantly taking care of the workers wellbeing.

As the Vice President of the Singapore Wushu Dragon and Lion Dance Federation (SWDLDF), I oversee Wushu with a focus on holistically developing athletes for high performance outcomes while promoting lifelong active living through Wushu encompassing Tao Lu, Tai Ji, Traditional Wushu, and San Da across all ages.

Chairman of an MNC Corporation's CSR initiative, organizing projects for employees to volunteer while also supporting funding sponsorships for various VWOs. One signature project was the V-Challenge, also known as the Volunteer Challenge, which mobilized 1,000 employees to volunteer in 28 activities across 26 VWOs in a single day.