

LEE HUI YING 李蕙莹

- Member of Parliament for Nee Soon GRC
- Active youth community volunteer in Nee Soon GRC for more than 15 years. She had also served through various grassroots organisations – Youth Executive Committee, Central Youth Council, Citizens' Consultative Committee, Community Club Management Committees.
- Passionate about building community and connecting generations, she had initiated events and programmes across different age groups, from seniors to our youth, to strengthen bonds within the Nee Soon family.
- She cares deeply for our seniors and believes in empowering youth, she is committed to listen, connect, and take action to support the different needs of every generation.
- She is currently the Director of Communications at Temasek Foundation, a non-profit organisation that supports diverse impactful programmes to uplift communities.
- Earlier in her career, she spent 10 years in government communications, helping to shape messages across ministries including the Ministry of Digital Development and Information, Ministry of Transport and Ministry of Health.