

MR NG CHEE MENG 黄志明

- Secretary-General of NTUC

Mr Ng Chee Meng is the NTUC Secretary-General since May 2018, advocating for workers' wages, welfare, and work prospects. He established the Company Training Committees and launched the NTUC Job Security Council to promote workers (including PMEs) upskilling and job security. He previously served as Minister in the Prime Minister's Office, Minister for Education (Schools), and Second Minister for Transport. He also had a distinguished career in the Singapore Armed Forces. Mr Ng holds a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering and a Master of Arts in International Relations.