

Bio

Miss Cheryl Chan Wei Ling

Miss Cheryl Chan is a member of the Singapore Parliament and serves in several Government Parliamentary Committees including Finance, Trade & Industry, National Development and Manpower. She is also Chairman of Fengshan PCF (preschool), Vice Chairman of East Coast-Fengshan Town Council, an Advisory Board Member of the College of Engineering, Nanyang Technological University; and Adviser to Chemical Industries Employees' Union and PACE Council.

Besides her public sector role, Cheryl works in the private sector as a senior executive with Linde, a leading global industrial gases and engineering company. She currently leads the Clean Hydrogen market, focusing on strategic business development activities and advocacy across APAC. Most recently, she was responsible for the APAC Project and Integration Management Office that oversaw the merger of Praxair and Linde. Cheryl joined Linde in 2007 and held various global and APAC senior management positions in corporate strategy, product portfolio management, supply chain operations, product marketing and business development.

Prior to joining Linde, Cheryl was with Kulicke & Soffa, a world's leading supplier of semiconductor back-end assembly equipment. Here, she spent several years in technical & customer interfacing roles and engineering management before moving on to product marketing in Asia.

Cheryl graduated with an Honours degree in Applied Science (Materials Engineering) from Nanyang Technological University (NTU). She also holds a Master in Business Management (MBA) from the Macquarie Graduate School of Management. In 2013, Cheryl was awarded the Public Service Medal for her community work by the President of Singapore. She was also honoured by her alma mater with the NTU Nanyang Outstanding Young Alumni Award in 2016 for her accomplishments in both the public and private sectors.
