

Indranee THURAI RAJAH
Minister in the Prime Minister's Office
Second Minister for Finance and Education
Member of Parliament for Tanjong Pagar GRC

Ms Indranee Rajah is the Minister in the Prime Minister's Office. She is also Second Minister for Finance and Education.

Ms Rajah has been the Member of Parliament for the Tanjong Pagar Group Representation Constituency (GRC) since 2001.

She was in practice as a lawyer and Senior Counsel before joining Government.

Under her law portfolio from 2012 – 2018, she co-chaired the Committees on Family Justice, the formation of the Singapore International Commercial Court as well as the Committee to Strengthen Singapore as an International Centre for Debt Restructuring. She also helmed the Steering Committee on the strategic direction of Singapore's third law school at UniSIM.

Under her MOF portfolio, Ms Rajah co-chaired the Working Group on Legal and Accounting Services, a sub-committee of the 2016 Committee on the Future Economy, the recommendations of which are aimed at transforming the legal and accounting industries in Singapore and catalysing the internationalisation of such professional services.

In her first tour of the Education Ministry from 2012-2015, she led the Committee for Applied Studies in Polytechnics and ITE (ASPIRE) resulting in SkillsFuture, a national movement to align education with economic demand, career guidance and lifelong learning.

As Second Minister for Education, Ms Rajah currently chairs UPLIFT – the "Uplifting Pupils in Life and Inspiring Families Taskforce", an inter-agency team convened in 2018 aimed at strengthening support for students from disadvantaged families.
