

Chua Tiang Choon, Keith

Vice President, Singapore Anglican Community Services (SACS)

Executive Chairman, ABR Holdings Limited

Mr Keith Chua currently serves as the Vice President of Singapore Anglican Community Services (SACS), a key service provider in both health and social service sectors that runs a wide range of services. This includes senior services such as senior activity centres and nursing homes, a temporary shelter for women and children, and psychiatric services such as residential rehabilitation, community intervention and integrated employment services.

In addition to his involvement in the social service and health sectors, he is also the Executive Chairman of ABR Holdings Limited, which operates Food and Beverage companies and was conferred the Champion of Good award by the National Volunteer and Philanthropy Centre in 2017, 2018, 2020 and 2022.

Mr Chua also serves on the boards of a number of private companies and non-profit organisations including: Vice President – Restaurant Association of Singapore (RAS), Chairman – Caring For Life (CFL), Advisory Board Chairman – National Museum of Singapore (NMS), Board member – Woodbridge Hospital Charity Fund (WHCF), Board member – National Heritage Board (NHB), and Trustee of Mrs Lee Choon Guan Trust Fund.

As Trustee of Mrs Lee Choon Guan Trust Fund, he supports National University of Singapore (NUS) in areas of Education, Healthcare, and Community Engagement. Collaborations include - an endowed NUS Social Work Practice Research Fund, to engage with frontline practitioners to conduct practice research that will enhance service provision and delivery, and The Centre for Computing for Social Good & Philanthropy (CCSGP), with the vision to cultivate future technology leaders who have the ethos of service and giving back to society.

He continues to be an active member of the Anglican Church - currently serves as Vicar's Warden of St Andrew's Cathedral (SAC) and an elected member on the Diocese Of Singapore (DOS) Standing Committee.