

Mr Seah Kian Peng is a Member of Parliament. First elected in May 2006, he has since been re-elected in May 2011, September 2015 and most recently in July 2020. From 2011 to 2015, he was concurrently, the Deputy Speaker of Parliament.

Mr Seah is the Group CEO of NTUC Enterprise - a holding group of all NTUC Social Enterprises. He is also the Group CEO of NTUC FairPrice which has a workforce of 13,000 employees and a group annual turnover of $4b.

Mr Seah has also worked in both the public and private sectors. He has spent a large part of his career with the NTUC group, helping different portfolios within the group.

Mr Seah did his undergraduate studies in Australia under the Colombo Plan Scholarship. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Marketing and also a Fellow of the Singapore Institute of Directors. He was also the founding Chairman of the Harvard Business School Club of Singapore before stepping down in 2018.

Mr Seah is active on the community front. He is currently Chairman of the Marine Parade Leadership Foundation, Vice Chairman of South East Community Development Council and sits on the board of Singapore Olympic Foundation. He had previously served on the boards of Centre for Fathering, Singapore Centre for Social Enterprises (raiSE) and Singapore National Co-operatives Federation. He had also been a board member of SingTel, Health Promotion Board and National Parks Board.

Mr Seah is also a board director of The Consumer Goods Forum, a global industry network that brings together the CEOs and senior management of some 400 retailers, manufacturers and service providers across 70 countries.