Ong Hua Han is a corporate banking relationship manager at Deutsche Bank. At the bank, he also leads the dbEnable Work Placement Programme, to drive inclusive hiring of persons with disabilities (PwDs).

Hua Han is a firm believer that society has a key part to play to break down social and environmental barriers to allow disadvantaged communities to thrive.

As part of his advocacy work, Hua Han is an Employment Taskforce Member to promote inclusive employment practices under Enabling Masterplan 2030. He is also Committee Member of Our Accessible City @ CBD (Raffles Place), to improve CBD infrastructure. In 2018 and 2022, Hua Han was also panel speaker at the Inclusive Business Forum.

Hua Han graduated from the National University of Singapore in 2016, with a Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours), Finance & Marketing Double Major. During his undergraduate days, he served as Committee Member of the NUS Enablers, to raise campus awareness for PwDs. He was also Sports Desk Editor and Writer for the Ridge Magazine. In 2012, Hua Han was awarded the Asia Pacific Breweries Foundation Scholarship. He attended Nanyang Junior College and Nan Hua High School.

Hua Han swims regularly to keep fit, and enjoys watching football over the weekend. He is also a PADI-certified Advanced Open Water diver, and looks forward to his next underwater adventure.
