7 Any organisation wishing to nominate persons for consideration can submit their nominations to the abovementioned Coordinators. The invitation for submission of names to the Special Select Committee is open to the general public. A person not selected by a Functional Group may be nominated by another proposer. The Special Select Committee will consider all applications.

8 In proposing names for consideration as NMPs, the attention of the organisations and members of the public is drawn to the provision of the Constitution which states:

“The persons to be nominated shall be persons who have rendered distinguished public service, or who have brought honour to the Republic, or who have distinguished themselves in the field of arts, letters, culture, the sciences, business, industry, the professions, social or community service or the labour movement.”

9 Submission of names must be made using the prescribed forms that are available for download from the Parliament website at www.parliament.gov.sg. The required forms and documents are to be submitted online via FormSG (link: go.gov.sg/nmp2020). The materials for submission should be in PDF format. The total size of your materials should not exceed 7MB.

10 Alternatively, you may submit the completed forms and supporting documents at the Office of the Clerk of Parliament located at Parliament House, 1 Parliament Place, Singapore 178880.

11 The completed forms and supporting documents must be submitted online via FormSG, or received by the Office of the Clerk of Parliament, by 23 November 2020, at 4.30 pm.

12 The process for the consideration of persons proposed to the Special Select Committee of Parliament is set out in the Annex.

Office of the Clerk of Parliament Singapore,
25 October 2020

PROCESS FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF PERSONS PROPOSED AS NOMINATED MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

The Special Select Committee's ("Committee") process for the consideration of persons proposed as Nominated Members of Parliament is as follows:

STEP 1

The general public is invited to submit names of persons to the Special Select Committee of Parliament, for nomination by the Committee for appointment by the President as Nominated Members of Parliament ("NMP").

STEP 2

After the closing date, the Committee will consult elected Members of Parliament and seek their comments on the persons proposed.

STEP 3

The Committee will assess all applications and consider the comments received from elected Members of Parliament. In deliberating on the persons to interview, the Committee is guided by the criteria set out in Section 3(2) of the Fourth Schedule of the Constitution of the Republic of Singapore.

STEP 4

The Committee will meet over a few days to interview candidates.

STEP 5

Following the interviews, the Committee will discuss and agree on the persons to nominate for appointment by the President as NMPs. In its deliberations, the Committee is guided by the criteria set out in Section 3(2) of the Fourth Schedule of the Constitution of the Republic of Singapore, which provides that the persons to be nominated:

- shall be persons who have rendered distinguished public service, or who have brought honour to the Republic, or who have distinguished themselves in the field of arts and letters, culture, the sciences, business, industry, the professions, social or community service or the labour movement; and
- will be able to reflect as wide a range of independent and non-partisan views as possible.

STEP 6

The Committee will submit a list of persons to be appointed as NMPs to the President.

STEP 7

The persons proposed will be appointed as NMPs by the President and presented with their Instruments of Appointment at the Istana.

STEP 8

The NMPs will take their Oaths of Allegiance at a sitting in Parliament.
