Raj Joshua Thomas
Nominated Member of Parliament

Raj Joshua Thomas was first appointed a Nominated Member of Parliament in January 2021. He was re-appointed for a second term in July 2023.

Joshua has worked in the government and private sectors, and is involved in the non-profit sector as an industry representative. He is a Partner at law firm Wee Swee Teow LLP where he heads the Dispute Resolution and Regulator Practice Groups. He is also President of the Security Association Singapore.

He started his career in the public service, serving in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Singapore Land Authority and the Defence Science and Technology Agency. He then practiced law at Allen & Gledhill LLP before joining the security industry as CEO of security agency TwinRock Pte Ltd. He commenced practice at his current firm in 2022.

Joshua sits on the board of Workforce Singapore and the Workplace Safety and Health Council.

He has honours degrees in Law and Political Science.